ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Supt. of Public Instruction.

DR. H. A. M. HENDERSON, of Harrison county, is a candidate for reelection to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hon. Z. F. SMITH, of Henry county, is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Face of the Lion Shows Through the Lamb's Skin.

It is supposed the opposition awakened in the Administration, the cabinet and that ancient fool, the editor of the Washington Republican, Mr. Clapp, whose name is sufficiently odious and indicative of his morals, is simply because they have failed to gull the people of the South with the sham pretensions of Mr. Hayes to be the great pacificator between the North and South, author of the Southern policy and his protectorate over the political fortunes of the States. We, as all men who think honestly, conclude every State is secure in all their political rights under the shield of the Constitution, and, of course, under no obligation to the President or any one else to give to them that which is their own. How superlatively ridiculous is such presumption that leads Mr. Hayes or his cabinet to assume such magnanimity, to grant to the sovereign States of the South that which belongs to each of them as well as all other States in the Union. Monstrous pretension. This is the language of the Autocrat-Dictator, suited better to the vassalage of Turk and Chinaman, the barbarian, but not to the civilized nations of Europe, much less to the free, intelligent Republic of the United States. This is the imperious, potent language and sentiment of a dominant party that for nearly twenty years ruled with a rod of iron; dethroned civil liberty, broke down all the barriers of the Constitution and laws, seized and claimed the sword and purse to enslave freemen, and is unwilling, from long use to despotism, to surrender to the American people the free ballot, the heritage of liberty, that the people may choose for themselves their own representatives and declare their own policy.

Why not the people in the South be sold? It is their right as much as it has been for the States of the North to have been so, or to be still. To repudiate a party that by force arbitrarily ruled the States to their bankruptcy and total enslavement, is as natural as the sun shall break through the gloom of the stormy night and usher in the light that marches forward to noonday splendor. All these generous and manly denunciations of editor Clapp can not stay the march of Democracy in the Southern States, nor move the noble Democracy in the Northern States, who have battled with a firmness for that which they knew was right and which they freely accorded to the South.

Crime on the Increase.

It does seem that, notwithstanding all the efforts of Christianity, morality and law, crime is marching on to an extent wholly unknown in its enormity in this country. What can produce such a state of depravity will puzzle the brain of the best and wisest philosopher of the age. Every paper we open is full of the most daring robberies, rapes, murders and outlaws the world ever witnessed. Are the people driven to this state of frenzy by poverty, or is it from some other cause yet to be developed? Want may drive men to dishonesty; but that it would produce such wickedness, is hardly just to conclude. "Wine," it is said, "is a mocker and strong drink is raging, and he that is deceived thereby is not wise." We opine this evil spirit has something to do with the moving tide of evil that is raging like the fanning sea in terrible madness. This is the great lever the devil uses when he tries to turn the world upside-down, and it looks very much as though the declaration of the scriptures are fulfilling; that his Satanic Majesty shall be turned loose, that he may go about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. It looks very much like this deceptive old snip of insubordination was running riot in this world of ours, making the people drunk with the fiery fluid of which the philosopher said—"If I had no other name by which to call thee, I would call thee devil." It is fully to disguise the fact that an evil so potent for ruin is doing a full share of the mischief that is fast bringing to our own doors the terrible calamities that afflict others. All men who use it, they who sell it are equally aware of the agency alcohol has in the degeneracy of morals and the crimes of the times. We mean no reflections upon any gentleman who uses or sells, but simply to speak of facts in general, that which is patent to all the world. He that fondles the serpent is endangered by its venom.

According to the latest figuring of the Courier-Journal, the Senate, after the 4th of next March, will be composed of 42 Democrats, 33 Republicans and 1 Independent, and the next lower House will be composed of 144 Democrats, 121 Republicans and 14 Greenbackers, with California yet to elect, which is now represented by 2 Democrats and 2 Republicans.

Partisanism.

Mr. J. B. Cannon lives at Sulphur Springs, Ohio county, Ky., and Mr. J. D. Shortell is his assignee in bankruptcy. The Herald has an actual circulation of several hundred in the part of the county contiguous to Sulphur Springs. The Kentucky Republican is published in Madisonville, Hopkins county, Ky., a distance of sixty miles from Sulphur Springs, and it has not a dozen subscribers anywhere near the region of Sulphur Springs. Yet Mr. Shortell, as assignee of J. B. Cannon, advertises the wares, goods, &c., to be sold at Sulphur Springs, Ohio county, Ky., on the 5th day of December, 1878, in the Kentucky Republican, but never has a line inserted in the Herald about it. What is the object of spending the assets of the bankrupt in advertising the sale? We had supposed it was to give notoriety to the sale and draw as large a number of buyers as possible, thus securing competition in bidding and making the sale receipts larger, thus insuring to the benefit of the creditors. This is a reasonable conclusion. Now, if that is the object of advertising, why not insert the advertisement in a paper that has a bonafide circulation in the vicinity of the sale? How many people in Hopkins and Webster counties, where the Republican circulates, will be attracted to an auction sale of dry goods and groceries way up here in Ohio county? How many people in Ohio county will be advised of the time and place of the sale by reason of the advertisement in the Republican? Why did the assignee advertise the sale in a Madisonville paper that would not increase the aggregate amount of sales, and not insert the advertisement in a paper that would have done the credit to some good? Was it not because the Madisonville paper was a Republican sheet and the assignee Republican and wanted to use his position to reward one of the faithful, help to sustain a partisan paper and to help starve out a paper of the opposite party, by keeping patronage from it that legitimately belonged to it. Is the assignee not bound in honor to manage the assets so as to insure to the best interests of the creditors? Is not this advertising in a Madisonville paper a positive waste of the assets of the bankrupt? Is not such conduct in an assignee very reprehensible, and is he not responsible, and ought he not to be required to make all such partisan expenditures good out of his own pocket? If he wanted to advertise in a paper outside of the county, how did it happen that he overlooked the Breckenridge News, the Hawesville Plaindealer and the Owensboro papers, either of which has a larger circulation than the Republican, and are not half so far off?

The reason is plain. This is only one of many instances of the like that could be shown up, by other assignees and bankrupt officers.

Letter From Bartlett.
December 24, 1878.

The health of this vicinity is good, with a few exceptions, yet during the past month, Death, with an unrelenting hand, has been in our midst, and laid his cold fingers upon several of our good people; among the number were the venerable and esteemed Harvey Mills, and the wife of Dr. Geo. W. Chapman, who has been confined to her room for many years with rheumatism.

Prof. Berry, of Davies county, is teaching our district school. He is giving satisfaction and has a full attendance of pupils.

Rev. John Burns, of McLean county, is holding a series of meetings at Union Grove church, near the Precinct. He is of the Christian denomination, and is creating quite an interest there, having had several additions to the church.

There is being opened a county road through this precinct, under the supervision of W. E. Townsend. It begins at H. B. Cains, and runs through by the church and voting place to S. L. Taylor's. When completed and opened it will be a convenience to the communities along the route and the public generally.

During the fall months the races at Taylor's have been the only feature of sport. Everybody seems to have something to win or lose, and nearly every horse has had his latest powers aroused and now courses with the wind.

The Register man ought to come over here on a soliciting tour. There are plenty of poems here, and he might gather up some on subscription.

If any further of note transpires I will write.

W. T.

Courier-Journal: The New York Tribune publishes the returns from the thirty-three counties of South Carolina for the election of 1876 and 1878. In no way could the Tribune better prove the unpopularity of its party in that State than by presenting this comparison to its readers. In 1876 the aggregate vote for the Governor was, Hampton, 92,264; Chamberlain, 91,127. In 1878, the total Republican vote was 4,588, a falling off of 86,539 votes. That is an emphatic repudiation of a party whose leading men in South Carolina have been and are a very low order of thieves, forgers and perjurers.

Charles K. Needham has been selected as Superintendent of the Owensboro & Nashville Railroad.

Owensboro Examiner: Messrs. D. F. Whitcomb & Co. have leased a coal mine a half a mile beyond the Junction, and the O. & M. Railroad Company have contracted to extend the road to the mines, to facilitate the shipping of coal over their road. This extension will largely increase the coal supply in this city, as this will probably be the chief market for the product of the mines.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by druggists that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as Boecher's German Syrup for severe coughs, colds settled on the breast, consumption, or any disease of the throat and lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing every one that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it.

LINES.

There's a fountain deep down in each heart,
That waits but the touch of a hand,
To bubble and flow with pity and love,
Like a stream that runs o'er the land.

I wish that I had the power divine
To touch all the hearts of the living,
And fill them with love and charity,
That this might be truly Thanksgiving.

But they wrangle and write, and discuss pro and con,
Till there's scarcely a village or town
That has not had letters written about
The virtues of Blackburn and Brown.

Now, all may be true that is written or said,
By the friends of the one or the other;
But what is the name of the people, I ask,
Makes "Balsam" take sides in the bother.

He sure can't think that either of them
Has a rice or counsel will ask,
For of a gift the doctors sent,
To them has been given most "Balsam."

Just let them alone to fight it out
With Latin and terms that confuse,
And rest assured that give them a chance,
They'll credulous people misuse.

If an angel were sent to make up a list
Of the heroes, an earth, of reason,
I'm sure among those, of the quiet or good,
Would neither be Blackburn or Brown.

The foul are they both of the peoples applause,
Too eager to run with the crowd;
Yet still water you know that runs very deep,
And still heroes are not noisy or loud.

HARTFORD, KY., Nov. 28, 1878.

CAN IT BE DEATEN?

A Model Kentucky Judicial District.

[Louisville Commercial.]

Judge John Allen Murray, Judge of the Criminal Court of the Fifth Judicial district of this State, arrived at the Louisville Hotel last night, having just concluded a session of his court at Litchfield, Grayson county. As a matter of record the term just closed was unprecedented, as the following details will show. The Grand Jury was accepted in the order of first recall. Not one unqualified, and not an excuse made. The petit jury was selected from the original venue summoned by the Jury Commissioner. Its personnel was above the average, being all young men comparing favorably with any like body ever summoned in the State. Between thirty and forty cases were tried and every case that went to the Jury resulted in a conviction of the prisoner. Not a single indictment was found, or case tried, of a negro, and not a negro witness was called to the stand. If any other judicial district in this or any other State has ever had a County Criminal term when such competent juries were called "on first call" or where not a single acquittal occurred in a like number of cases, we would like to hear of it. Circuit Clerk Ed. Thomas says that after a clerical experience of over thirty years, he is free to say he never supposed such a thing possible—and that "the chain is complete," that the jurors, like sensible men, concluded that Prosecuting Attorney Haycraft's arguments were true gospel and acted accordingly.

Democratic Convention in Larnoe Co.

HODGENSVILLE, Nov. 2.

To-day was county court, and a large crowd of people were in town. After dinner the court-house was filled to overflowing by the people who came to attend the Democratic convention, held for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State convention of May, 1879. W. H. Hamilton, Chairman of the county convention, called the convention to order, and, on motion of Hon. T. A. Robertson, Dr. Hamilton was made permanent Chairman. Judge G. W. Thurman was appointed Secretary. The following resolutions were then read and adopted:

Resolved, That the vote of Larnoe county in the coming State convention be cast for James A. Dawson, of Hart, for Lieutenant Governor; P. W. Hardin, of Mercer, for Attorney General; Fayette Hewitt, of Hardin, for Auditor, and Capt. Ralph Sheldon, for Register.

Resolved, That the delegates go un-instructed as to Governor.

W. H. HAMILTON, Chairman.
G. W. THURMAN, Secretary.

Something for the New Year.

The world renowned success of Hostetter's Bitters, and their continued popularity for a quarter of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing 80 hands in that department. Ten cylinder printing presses, 8 folding machines, 5 job presses, &c., are running about eleven months in the year on this work, and the issue of same for 1879 will not be less than ten millions, printed in English, German, French, Welsh Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, &c., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1879 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

Owensboro Examiner: Messrs. D. F. Whitcomb & Co. have leased a coal mine a half a mile beyond the Junction, and the O. & M. Railroad Company have contracted to extend the road to the mines, to facilitate the shipping of coal over their road. This extension will largely increase the coal supply in this city, as this will probably be the chief market for the product of the mines.

VEGETINE

WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.

Mr. ALBERT CROOKER, the well known druggist and apothecary, of Springfield, Mo., always advises every one troubled with rheumatism to try VEGETINE.

Read this Statement.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 12, 1876.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS—

Dear Sir—Fifteen years ago last fall I was taken sick with rheumatism, was unable to move until the next April. From that time until three years ago this fall I suffered with nothing with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time that I could not step one step; these attacks were quite often. I suffered everything that a man could, over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGETINE and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have had no rheumatism since that time. I always advise every one that is troubled with rheumatism to try VEGETINE, and suffer for years as I have done. This statement is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned. Yours, etc., ALBERT CROOKER.

Firm of A. Crooker & Co., Druggist & Apothecary.

VEGETINE HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME.

Boston, Oct. 1870.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS—

Dear Sir—My daughter, after having a severe attack of rheumatism, though she is a feeble state of health, being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using it for three bottles, she is now perfectly cured. I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the VEGETINE for the same complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take and it is cheerfully recommended.

JAMES MOORE, 364 Athens Street.

Rheumatism is a Disease of the Blood.
The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. VEGETINE sets by coagulating the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy condition. VEGETINE regulates the bowels which is very important in this complaint. One bottle of VEGETINE will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure, it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing. VEGETINE is sold by all Druggists. Try it, and your verdict will be the same as that of thousands before you. I never found so much relief as from the use of VEGETINE, which is composed exclusively of Barks, Roots and Herbs.

"VEGETINE" says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its great medicinal value, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE Nothing Equal to It.

SOUTH SALEM, Mass., Nov. 14, 1876.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS—

Dear Sir—I have been troubled with Rheumatism, Canker and Liver complaint for three years. Nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the VEGETINE. I am now getting along first rate, and still using the VEGETINE. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. I can heartily recommend it to everybody. Yours truly, MISS LIZZIE M. PACKARD.

No. 16 Lagrange Street, South Salem, Mass.

VEGETINE PREPARED BY H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON, MASS.

VEGETINE is sold by All Druggists.

A CHANCE FOR BALDHEADS.

Their Day of Deliverance Has Unwined.
This is the age of wonders—wonders in science, wonders in mechanism, wonders in everything. It has been said that the man who causes two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before is a public benefactor. What, then, shall be said of the man who causes a full and luxuriant crop of hair to grow upon the barren and shining pate of the large army of bald heads who have well nigh despaired of ever having a natural covering for their heads again? What place, in a word, shall be assigned to the discoverer of Carboline? Shall he not have a conspicuous niche in the Temple of Fame, and stand first among the benefactors of his race? To impart new life and vigor to the dormant energies of a diseased scalp; to give strength and fullness to weak and struggling growth of hair; to bring back the faded color and gloss to bleached and natural locks, are no ordinary achievements. Science, chemistry and therapeutics have sought in vain to accomplish them for centuries. All honor, then, to the discoverer of the new hair restorative, Carboline, which contains the elements that work such mysterious and gratifying changes. Kennedy & Co., Special Agents, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all druggists.

Why Hesitate.

We have no hesitancy in recommending Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar as an unfailing remedy for coughs and colds, as we can give the most substantial and weighty evidence as to its virtues. It has cured thousands, and its increasing popularity is abundant proof that it is appreciated in a vigorous clime where coughs and colds are the great and long-agoed plagues. If you wish to obtain speedy relief from these afflictions, remember that Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar is the best remedy in the world, and is only 50 cents a bottle. For sale by J. W. Ford.

Of Interest to the Public.

Public speakers are often annoyed, and even seriously afflicted with an affection of the throat, which greatly hinders their efforts to entertain and instruct their hearers. A slight cold adds to the difficulty, and sometimes results disastrously unless sufficient means be used to prevent. Every one knows the healing virtues of honey and tar, which are found in all their strength and purity in the greatest Cough Medicine ever prepared. A certain cure for coughs, colds and all diseases of the throat and lungs is found in Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar, which, together with the golden treasure of the bee, contains the resinous balm yielded by the pine, combined with other materials as simple and efficient. Remember Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar will cure your cough. Price fifty cents a bottle. For sale by J. W. Ford.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by druggists that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as Boecher's German Syrup for severe coughs, colds settled on the breast, consumption, or any disease of the throat and lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing every one that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it.
